Did someone say ice cream? Dairy Queen fundraiser is back

Employees can benefit the Children's Miracle Network on Thursday by buying a Blizzard at a participating Dairy Queen. Dairy Queen will donate at least $1 to the Children's Miracle Network for every Blizzard sold.

Employees and teams are asked to fill out a preorder form and fax it to a participating Dairy Queen location. Group orders are accepted and pre-orders should be submitted by 1 p.m. tomorrow (Wednesday).

Here are the local Dairy Queen locations participating in the Blizzard event:

- 1078 Morrow Road, Medford; fax (541) 776-0844
- 951 E. Barnett Road, Medford; fax (541) 245-7495
- 1960 W. Main St., Medford; fax (541) 773-2663
- 7635 Crater Lake Highway, White City; fax (541) 826-2714
- 280 S. Front St., Central Point; fax (541) 727-7776
- 1674 NW Sixth St., Grants Pass. Faxes are not available; call (541) 476-8282
- 610 Redwood Highway, Grants Pass. Faxes are not available; call (541) 474-5882

Other participating Dairy Queen locations are in Gold Beach, Brookings, Cave Junction and Klamath Falls.

This is the 27th year that Dairy Queen has supported the Children's Miracle Network through the Asante Foundation. The network is an alliance of 170 premier nonprofit hospitals in the United States that provide pediatric care to a total of 17 million children annually.

Asante Rogue Regional has served as the Children's Miracle Network hospital for Southern Oregon and Northern California since 1988. Asante Three Rivers Medical Center more recently became a Children's Miracle Network hospital.
