Radiologist Ted Hubbert Passes Away Suddenly

Theodore “Ted” Hubbert, M.D., a radiologist with the Medford Radiological Group who practiced at Asante Ashland Community Hospital and Asante Rogue Regional Medical Center, passed away suddenly in Medford on April 2. He was 55.

Ted lived in Jacksonville, and had a big sense of humor and a passion for life, according to an obituary his family placed in the Medford Mail Tribune. He loved cooking and wine, and making people laugh and feel at home, the obituary said.

He is survived by his wife, Patty Hubbert; daughter Mary; sons James and Robert; parents William and Nancy Hubbert of White City; brother Wes Hubbert of Bowie, Md.; and sisters Sandy Destiny of Healdsburg, Calif., and Pamela Hubbert of Cyprus, Texas.

A funeral was held April 13 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, with a reception afterward for family and friends at the historic U.S. Hotel Ballroom in Jacksonville.

Donations in Ted’s name may be made to The Hillcrest Committee, c/o 2673 Oak View Circle, Medford, OR, 97504, to directly support cancer research.
