Asante Cardiologist to Speak on Women and Heart Disease

Dr. Ariane Neyou, the newest physician at Southern Oregon Cardiology in Grants Pass, will offer a talk on “Women and Heart Disease – What You Should Know,” from noon to 1 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 16, at the Asante Center for Outpatient Health.

The Asante Community Health Education Series presentation is part of the organization’s observance of American Heart Month throughout February.

Dr. Neyou is board-certified in internal medicine, echocardiography, nuclear cardiology and cardiovascular disease. She holds special interests in invasive cardiology, general cardiology, and women and cardiovascular disease.

Various health-care professionals from Asante Three Rivers Medical Center’s Cardiac Rehabilitation and Cardiopulmonary Therapy offices will be available after Dr. Neyou’s presentation in the ACOH Fourth-Floor Conference Room. The talk is free and lunch will be provided.

Those who are interested in attending can register online.

Dr. Neyou is a graduate of France’s University of Reims medical school and completed a cardiology fellowship at the University of Poitiers medical school, which is also in France. She is a fellow of the French Society of Cardiology.

She served her internal medicine residency at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Mich., and a cardiology fellowship at the University of Texas Health Science Center in Houston. She holds a master degree in clinical research design and statistical analysis from the University of Michigan.
