Lung cancer event aims to boost awareness, honor loved ones

To help educate the public and honor survivors of lung cancer, Asante and Asante Foundation are hosting a free educational and social event on Saturday, Nov. 4, in Medford.

“Shine a Light on Lung Cancer” includes information on the latest treatments, national efforts to increase lung cancer screening, and tobacco-cessation programs and resources.

Attendees can also honor survivors and “shine a light” for those who succumbed to the disease. The event will include a raffle for prizes and giveaways along with appetizers and beverages.

The free event takes place from 3 to 6 p.m. at Smullin Health Education Center on the ARRCM campus. To learn more, email Rochelle.Iverson@asante.org or call (541) 789-8115.

Asante News is published every Tuesday. The deadline to submit articles is 5 p.m. Wednesday.
