Asante Orthopedists to Present at Health Series

The Asante Community Health Education Series will take a broad-spectrum approach to orthopedics on April 30 at the Asante Center for Outpatient Health in Grants Pass, with a presentation covering shoulder, hip, hand and foot and ankle problems.

The event – “Dem Bones, Dem Bones, Dem Achy Bones” – will feature orthopedic physicians Daniel Wieking, MD, Matthew Nugent, MD, James Dowd, MD, and Kiley Ziegler, MD. All four practice at Asante Physician Partners – Orthopedic Surgery, in Grants Pass.

The April 30 program will run from noon until 1:30 p.m., in the fourth-floor conference room at ACOH. There is no charge for admission and lunch will be provided, but space is limited so attendees are encouraged to register online.

Dr. Nugent will discuss common problems of the shoulder, Dr. Wieking will cover treatments and options for foot and ankle conditions, Dr. Dowd will talk about how to recognize when hip replacement surgery may be needed and Dr. Ziegler will address minimally invasive hand surgeries.
