Values in Action awards: call for nominations

Asante will celebrate and honor five of its most extraordinary employees with the 2017 Values in Action Awards this fall — but first, some help is needed in identifying potential VIA winners. Asante employees are encouraged to nominate exceptional co-workers who make a difference in the organization.

Any Asante employee who has received at least one monthly Values in Action appliqué (ID badge blueberry) within the past 12 months may be nominated for the prestigious, annual award. Employees are asked to consider nominating colleagues who:

- Go above and beyond what is expected, and find new ways to do things
- Actively seek out and are receptive to the thoughts, ideas and feelings of others, and embrace diversity
- Act with integrity, even when it is difficult, and are willing to voice opinions — especially when others don't share the same position
- Champion and advocate for changes in Asante that will better meet the needs and expectations of patients, employees and the public
- Recommend Asante to others and are openly supportive of the organization

The VIA awards are given each year to those whose service or behavior exceeds expectations and reflects the organization's core values of excellence, respect, honesty, service and teamwork. Honorees are commemorated at a luncheon with family, friends and Asante executive staff. Each winner receives a letter of acknowledgement from the Asante president and CEO, a $100 gift certificate and a custom VIA award.

Nomination forms are also available on myAsanteNET or from the Human Resources offices. Completed nomination forms must be received no later than Sept. 1. The top five nominees who demonstrate and best illustrate Asante's values, as documented on nomination forms, will be honored in October.
