National Hospital Week: Celebration and Acknowledgement

An annual celebration described by its organizers as the nation's largest health care event will be observed at all three Asante hospitals from May 11 to May 15. National Hospital Week will be an occasion for the organization to acknowledge its people – this year's theme is, "Behind every great hospital is a great staff."

National Hospital Week – sponsored by the American Hospital Association – has provided an annual opportunity since 1921 to thank physicians, nurses, therapists, food service workers, volunteers, administrators and others for their contributions and dedication to health care. The American Hospital Association says on its website that the event "recognizes the miracles (health-care workers) help to make happen on a day-to-day basis, both large and small."

At Asante, this year's celebration will touch each of the three hospital campuses, every day of the week. Giveaways include ice cream sundaes (Monday at Asante Ashland Community Hospital), root beer floats (Monday at Asante Rogue Regional) and cookies (Wednesday at Asante Three Rivers).

Other highlights include drawings at each hospital for iPad Minis and annual Employee Engagement and Communication Fairs at Asante Three Rivers (on Monday) and Asante Rogue Regional (on Wednesday). The fair at Asante Ashland Community Hospital will be this Friday, May 8.
